

Stuttering treatment and research

Reykjavík Iceland September 5th 2014

STUREN's symposium

No admission fee

Speakers: Roger Ingham, Janis Ingham, Per Alm, John van Borsel,
Monica Britto Pereira, Marjan Cosyns, Sarah Vanhoutte,
Elisabeth Lindström, Hilda Sønsterud and Jóhanna T. Einarsdóttir

Stuttering and anxiety

Stuttering and the brain

Stuttering and measurement

Neurophysiological research in stuttering

Speech Easy

Program

- 09:10 – 09:30 Jóhanna T. Einarsdóttir. Stuttering Research and Education Network. STUREN past and future research projects.
- 09:30 – 10:30 Roger J. Ingham. An effective stuttering treatment and the consequences for the brain.
- 10:30 – 10:00 Coffee
- 11:00 – 11:30 Per Alm. Stuttering and anxiety.
- 11:30 – 12:00 John van Borsel/ Jóhanna T. Einarsdóttir/ Marjan Cosyns. Factors involved in the assessment of stuttering in a foreign language.
- 12:00 – 12:30 Hilda Sønsterud. Motor control and cluttering – is there a connection?
- 12:30 – 13:30 Lunch
- 13:30 – 14:00 Elisabeth Lindström. The experience of the Lidcombe program in Sweden.
- 14:00 – 14:20 Mônica Britto Pereira. Effect of SpeechEasy on attitudes and emotions.
- 14:20 – 14:40 Marjan Cosyns. “Measuring articulation rate: A comparison of two methods.”
- 14:40 – 15:00 Sarah Vanhoutte Neurophysiological aspects of stuttering.
- 15:00 – 15:30 Coffee
- 15:30 – 16:15 Janis Ingham A behavioral treatment for young children who stutter: The effects of extended length of utterance.
- 16:15 – 17:00 Selected Master theses within the STUREN cooperation - Poster presentations.

For more information about STUREN and the symposium, see webpage www.sturen.org